

Camp SkyMember Customer Agreement

Please read all the terms for your membership and sign and date the bottom. Thank you!

General Information:

- SkyMembers will receive email communications from SkyRise Personnel allowing them early access to registrations and events.
- Should a member fail to register for a show, camp or event before it sells out, they will forfeit their place in that event. No refunds will be given.
- First payment will be due at the time of registration. Monthly payments will be due by check or electronic payment on the 15th of each month, beginning in September. SkyRise offers a 3-day grace period for payments, after which a late fee of $5/day will be applied
- There will be a returned payment fee of $30 for any check or electronic payment that does not clear.
- Should a SkyMember choose to cancel their membership, the full balance will become due for all activities/services rendered. No refunds can be given.
- A Cancellation fee of one month's payment will be applied to any early cancellation.
- Should an actor choose to withdraw mid-production, no refunds will be given and remaining balance for the production will be due
- SkyMembers will be guaranteed advertised prices for the 2016-2017 season, even if the pricing increases over the course of the year
- SkyMembers can use their card to receive a 5% discount for all SkyRise merchandise and a 10% discount for SkyRise classes. Membership discounts may not be combined with other promotional discounts.
- SkyMembers who attend Mill Pond School or Neary Elementary may use their SkyMember card to receive a 5% discount for registration in their school productions
- Members who enroll in electronic payment through Paypal will be subject to a processing fee of not more than $3.50/month.

SkyRise Camp Membership:

- SkyRise promises to offer registration to each 'Camp SkyMember' for 3 of our vacation camps.
- Members may choose any 3 camps from the following options: 6-week camp workshop (offered once weekly for 6 weeks), February vacation camp, April vacation camp, summer 1-week vacation camps (summer 1-week main stage musical and summer dinner theater productions are excluded)
- Camps have a limited enrollment due to space restrictions. If a 'Camp SkyMember' does not enroll before a particular camp is filled, they must choose a different camp.
- If a 'Camp SkyMember' does not enroll in all 3 of their allotted camps within 12 months of signing up for their membership, they will forfeit the remaining camp(s), no refunds will be given.
- Members who are chosen for our fall 2016 All Star cast may cover the registration fee for their participation by using one of their camp weeks.

(Optional) Season Ticket Membership:

- Season Ticket Holders will have early access to seat selection for all reserved seating shows
- Season tickets do not qualify for specialty seating.
- Should a season ticket member neglect to choose their seats or reserve their tickets before a performance sells out, they will forfeit their tickets to that production. No refunds will be given.
- Season ticket family passes are non-transferable and at least 1 adult family member must be present at the box office to collect tickets at each performance.
